SPEAKER: Mark A. Olinger, Director, Department of Planning & Development Review, City of Richmond

The Fry-Jefferson Map Society hosts this presentation by Mark A. Olinger, director of the Department of Planning and Development Review for the City of Richmond, about the history of city planning in Richmond and how it relates to current efforts to improve the city. This talk coincides with the Library's recent acquisition of a collection of fascinating historical planning charts and maps from the archives of City Hall. A few items from this collection will be on display during the program.

For more information on this program or membership in the Fry-Jefferson Map Society, contact Dawn Greggs at dawn.greggs@lva.virginia.gov or 804.692.3813.
